REPUBLICAN POLITICS

GROWING WARM.

The fact that William Brice, Jr., has thrown his hat into the ring for one of the Republican delegates to the National Convention to be held in Chicago in June has caused a ripple in the hoped-for peaceful waters of the Brumbaugh contingent. "Bill" is an out and out Penrose man and was to Washington a week or so ago to see the "King of the flock" to get his name in the list for political favor. It is said the "King" was very enthusiastic over "Bill's" new idea and cheered him immensely with a hearty O. K.

John M. Reynolds has a mind to go to the Convention as a Brumbaugh delegate, but he cannot go with the endorsement of anyone. The inquirer is against him, and the Everett Republican would not warm his jacket so very much to get him votes and he is entirely out with the Penroses. In a speech at the school house the other day he assailed this "Crazy" preparedness and insulted many of the old soldiers and their friends, many of whom took him to task concerning it. In fact, Reynolds stands in a most despicable position at the present. No Penrose people will be for him. The Roosevelt people won't support him and the organ of the Brumbaugh element won't support him. If any one of any caliber would come out against him the chances are that Reynolds would be snowed under so pitilessly that he would not emerge from his covers for the next decade. In a show down between Reynolds and Brice, Brice would lead 3 to 1. If either one should go to the Chicago convention, there is no hopes for Roosevelt to get either of their votes. It would be a stacked card against Roosevelt's hand. "Bill" is for Penrose, for president. Nobody else need apply if Penrose wants the job. If Penrose doesn't want it then "Bill" will support any one Penrose suggests, and of course, that won't be ME OR the Kaiser. If the Everett Republican would support him and there is no doubt that it will. Brice could carry the Eastern end of the county including Broad Top, East Providence, West Providence, Everett, Monroe, Mann and Southampton, Saxton, Liberty and Hopewell. He would carry Snake Spring, Colerain and Rainsburg, Bedford Borough and Bedford Township, Cumberland Valley, Harrison, Mann's Choice and Juniata. He may carry Kimmel also and would get a decent vote in all the other districts. Among the County officials Brice would have the Commissioners office, Sheriff's office, the Auditors and the Poor Directors and District Attorney's office and Reynolds would control the Prothonotary's office, Recorder's office, the county Game Protector, the new Deputy Factory Inspector and the County Superintendent.

The Republican bar will be about fifty-fifty, James and Jordan and Points will line up for Brice and Sell and Reiley will drive stakes for Reynolds. Minnich will wait for developments, with quite a heavy leaning for Brice.

The local district politicians will likely keep tally for Brice. They will reason that Penrose is a permanent leader for the party while Brumbaugh is only transient and a politician looks for permanency. Brumbaugh will be out of the road, when his term as governor closes for he cannot succeed himself while Penrose will still be in the saddle for a full two years with good chances for his party to renominate him. Penrose will have two years in which to chop off the heads of all Brumbaugh's appointees, who do not croak for Penrose and put in the fattening pegs the Penrose thoroughbred. "So befit to all tyrants." Dr. W. C. Miller would be for Penrose but he has to keep quiet in order to hold his job at Harrisburg. Forsake a principle and a friend for a job? Never!

William T. Blackburn.

William T. Blackburn, died at the home of his only child, Mrs. William J. Shoenthal, of New Paris, on February 25, aged 70 years, 5 months and 20 days. The deceased was a son of William and Julia (Keggs) Blackburn. He married Miss Minnie C. Hull who preceded him in death on March 3, 1902. Mr. Blackburn was afflicted with chronic convulsions and it was from the effects of one of these attacks that he was taken so suddenly. He was formerly a farmer by occupation and was noted for his honesty in dealing with his fellowmen. He was elected and held the office of school director in the borough of New Paris. His funeral, which occurred on Sunday afternoon, was held at the home of his daughter and was conducted by Rev. A. F. Richards, assisted by Rev. A. Fyock. Interment in the Baptist cemetery. A. P. Latchaw, S. T. Taylor, J. B. Stultz, Martin Hinton, S. H. Mickle and Lloyd Davis acted as pall bearers. Thomas H. Blackburn, the well-known proprietor of the hotel at New Paris, is a brother of the deceased.

Organization of Musical Club.

On Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Miss Cora McGirr, the organization of a piano club was successfully effected by a number of Bedford ladies of musical activity. The purpose of these ladies is to bring new musical life into the community by the raising of the standard which shall serve as incentives to higher culture on the part of musical students. The following are the officers for the ensuing year: President, Miss Cora McGirr; Vice President, Mrs. Cornelia D. Ross; Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Metzger; Treasurer, Mrs. George T. Jacobs; Executive Committee, Mrs. Henderson Points, Miss Jessie Bailey Barclay, Mrs. Chas. Lee.

On Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. H. R. Brightbill left their residence, at about 8 o'clock to pay a visit down town, robbers entered their dwelling by breaking in the windows. Their booty consisted of the jewelry of Mrs. Brightbill and a few wearables. The key to the kitchen door was sticking in the lock and on their departure they took the key with them, possibly for some future use. The Brightbills discovered the robbery when they returned about 9.30, and found burnt matches lying around on the floor.

PICTURES TAKEN LAST

MAY BE SHOWN IN

BEDFORD APRIL FIRST

Variety of Activities in Lincoln Highway Moving Pictures.

Immunerable Features of Thrilling Interest.

The series of moving pictures taken on the 30th of May last by the Lincoln Highway officials to be shown along the Lincoln way and all over the United States, will be at our disposal on April 1st, next. We will have them the entire day and evening here.

Every manner of historical, industrial, civic and commercial celebration has been pictured along the 3,400 miles of Lincoln Highway between the East River and San Francisco Bay, and all are to be seen in the moving pictures soon to be exhibited here.

In Cedar Rapids, Iowa, which is the home of Quaker Oats, a shower of oats was the feature. At Ames, Iowa, the state college turned out its 400 cadets for the pictures. Omaha, Nebraska, was especially illuminated at night for the Lincoln Highway camera man. Grand Island, Nebraska, which is the second largest horse market in the world, had 2,000 horses before the camera. Rough-riding of the most spectacular kind was scheduled in Cheyenne, Wyoming, where the great frontier celebration was held. At Laramie, the cattle industry was depicted. Rawlins, Wyoming, indicated its chief industry by an enormous pyramid of wool; the famous trout streams of the vicinity were also shown, together with a record catch of finny beauties.

While in Bedford the town was gayly decorated for the Thirtieth. Flags and bunting were in evidence on Autos, Horses and trees. A gallop of Autos came up Penn Street, four abreast. Narrows, Springs, Look-out and many beautiful scenes will show with which you are familiar.

Here are but a few of the many extremely interesting scenes picked at random from that part of this wonderful film taken in the West. They give some idea of how worth while it is in its entirety. The showing here of this feature film is but one stop in the long trip the pictures are taking, which includes every town on the Lincoln Highway and practically every large city in the United States. Through this wonderful film millions are really "seeing America first".

CONCERNING THE FILING OF PETITIONS TO GET NAMES ON BALLOTS AT SPRING PRIMARY

The Political parties to nominate candidates this year in Pennsylvania are Democratic, Washington, Republican, Socialist, Bull Moose, Keystone, Roosevelt Progressive, Personal Liberty and Prohibition.

To vote this year at the Spring Primaries to be held Tuesday, May 16, voters must have their party affiliations registered on March 14 and 15, this month. If you are registered as to the party candidate you wish to support you do not need to bother further. Commitmen should see that all new-comers have their party affiliations expressed on the registry.

The candidates to be nominated at the Spring Primary, May 16, are President of the United States, United States Senator, State Treasurer, Auditor General, Judge of the Supreme Court, four Congressmen-at-large, Congressmen of our 19th District, comprising Cambria, Blair and Bedford Counties; Members for the Legislature and State Committee-men. We also elect our township Committee-men at the Spring Primaries to serve for two years and elect two (2) delegates and two (2) alternate delegates to go to the Democratic National Convention to be held in St. Louis, Missouri in June.

Petitions for nomination for State and National offices must be filed on or before April 18, 1916, with Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, Pa. No one shall sign more petitions for a candidate than he can vote for at the general election and no ditto marks are to be used.

Petitions for nominations for the various offices must contain qualified Electors as follows: President of United States—100 signatures in at least 10 counties; State Treasurer, Auditor General, Congressmen-at-large—100 each in 5 counties at least; member of Congress, Delegates and Alternates to National Convention—200 in Districts; Members of Legislature and Members of State Committee—100 signatures; Members of County Committee—10 signatures of electors in the district and these petitions must be filed in the office of the County Commissioners not later than April 25. Blanks may be had from the County Commissioners.

Patrons' Day Exercises.

The patriotic exercises held at the Bard School, Friday afternoon, February 18, were well attended and enjoyed by those present. The pupils rendered their respective parts in an able manner, and the teacher, Miss Ruth Long, deserves much credit for the training which she gave them.

Following is the program: Song, "America," Recitation, "Washington's Rules," by Gladys Griffin. Recitation, "Dollie's Lesson," by Mabel Coughenour. Recitation, "A Little Boy's Trouble," by Claude Hill. Music, Dialogue, "Getting Ready for School," Recitation, "Johnny's History Lesson," by Milo Shaw. Recitation, "A Valentine," by Lavada Coughenour. Music, Recitation, "Tim Booker," by Lena Holler. Recitation, "He Didn't Think," by Elmer Coughenour. Music, Recitation, "What I Know About Lincoln," by Frank Holler. Recitation, "Work Together," by Frieda Shearer. Recitation, "Old Glory," by Alverda Foreman. Music, Dialogue, "If," by Milo Shaw. Alice Shearer, Blanche Long. Recitation, "A Small Patriotic," by Margaret Carpenter. Recitation, "When the Teacher Gets Cross," by Ira Coughenour. Solo, by Claude Hill. Recitation, "Ten Little Nickles," by Dewey Shearer. Recitation, "A Word to the Wise," by Pearl Hill. Dialogue, "The Boston Tea Party," by Bertha Shippey, Alice Shearer, Blanche Long, Lena Holler.

Many an earnest Bedford man or woman has publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. Week after week, month after month you've read their statements. Would these Bedford people recommend any medicine if it were not good? Would they confirm and repeat their statements after years had passed? Local proof is good evidence. Testimony confirmed years after is better evidence. The following Bedford woman's statement leaves no room for doubt. It must convince every kidney sufferer who reads it.

If your back aches—if your kidneys are weak, profit by Mrs. Davidson's experience: Mrs. Martha Davidson, 357 West Pitt St., Bedford, says: "I was very nervous and had severe headaches. My back ached constantly and the least bit of work tired me. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I decided to give them a trial and got a box at Heckerman's Drug Store. In every way they acted just as represented and gave me prompt relief."

Over Six Years Later, Mrs. Davidson said: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills once in awhile since first endorsing them and they have kept me in good health."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Davidson has twice publicly recommended. The remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Hints Worth Knowing.

To remove fish odor from silver and cooking utensils—Let them stand in cold water before washing.

To clean silk—Do not use a brush as the bristles are sure to scratch the surface. Take a piece of velvet, wipe the silk well and all the dust particles will be removed without the slightest injury.

To clean mirrors—I saw a milliner clean her windows in a few minutes. She dipped a piece of tissue paper in wood alcohol and rubbed the surface clean. Then took a clean piece of paper sprinkled a little whiting on it and polished the glass. It was the quickest and most satisfactory method I ever saw used.

A New Model Typewriter!

BUY IT NOW!

Yes, the crowning typewriter triumph is here!

It is just out—and comes years before experts expected it. For makers have striven a life-time to attain this ideal machine. And Oliver has won again, as we scored when we gave the world its first visible writing.

There is truly no other typewriter on earth like this new Oliver "9." Think of touch so light that the tread of a kitten will run the keys!

CAUTION! The new day advances that come alone on this machine are controlled by Oliver. Even our own previous models—famous in their day—never had the Optional Duplex Shift. It puts the whole control of 84 letters and characters in the little fingers of the right and left hands. And it lets you write them all with only 28 keys, the least to operate of any standard typewriter made. Thus writers of all other machines can immediately run the Oliver Number "9" with more speed and greater ease.

17 CENTS A DAY! Remember this brand-new Oliver "9" is the greatest value ever given in a typewriter. It has all our previous special inventions—visible writing, automatic spacer, 6½ ounce touch—plus the Optional Duplex Shift, Selective Color Attachment and all these other new-day features.

Yet we have decided to sell it to everyone everywhere on our famous payment plan—17 cents a day! Now every user can easily afford to have the world's crack visible writer, with the famous PRINTYPE, that writes like print, included FREE if desired.

TODAY—Write For Full Details and be among the first to know about this marvel of writing machines. See why typists, employers, and individuals everywhere are flocking to the Oliver. Just mail a postal at once. No obligation. It's a pleasure for us to tell you about it.

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER CO., Cor. Walnut & 10th Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

You can rent an Oliver Typewriter 3 months for $4.00.

Mrs. C. C. Foster who was on the sick list last week, is reported better at this writing.

William Thomas of Little Valley, visited at the home of Albert S. Figard Saturday.

Subdued. Von Blumer (roaring with rage)—Who told you to put that paper on the wall? Decorator—Your wife, sir. Von Blumer—(Quietly) isn't it?

Short and Sweet. Pat—"I hear you and the possible struck for shorter hours. Dier this get 'em?" Mike—"Sure." We're not working at all now."—Columbia Jester.

THE GREATEST OFFER

The Bedford Gazette and a set of Pure Aluminum COMBINATION COOKING UTENSILS

The Set Consists of
One Six Quart Berlin Kettle with Safety Cover to Prevent Boiling Over.
One Two and One-Half Quart Pudding Pan.
One Two and One-Half Quart Colander and Strainer.

The peculiar construction of these utensils enables the housewife, by using them singly, and in combination with one another, to make up the following utensils:

Six quart Berlin Kettle with safety insert cover. The pudding pan inserted, produces a 2 1-2 quart double boiler, superior to all others, because the boiler part is entirely submerged in the hot water, and the contents cooked more quickly.

Invert the pudding pan and place on top of kettle to produce self-basting roaster, which will roast meat on top of stove, with flame turned to one-third usual volume, retaining all original flavor and making it exquisitely tender.

Insert the colander in the kettle and cover with pudding pan to produce a regular 5-quart steam cooker.

This is the most practical cooking set that has been placed on the market, as each of the different articles used in its composition is complete in itself, and any housewife that has ever used one, will gladly add her testimonial.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Interesting Notes From Our Correspondent at National Capital.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28, 1916. The tension between the President and Congress over the submarine situation with Germany has lessened. At the same time it is apparent that the party differences have not been entirely smoothed over. The Capital generally believes that President Wilson will find a way out of the apparent impasse in the German controversy.

The present great national anxiety springs from differences of opinion concerning the definition of the word "unarmed". Arguments are heard in all quarters concerning the nullification of definitions, injunctions and prohibitions of international law by the development of aerial and submarine warships.

Word comes to Washington that Germany counts upon the American Congress forcing a backdown from President Wilson in the controversy over armed merchantmen. The United States will probably discuss with Germany the extent to which merchant ships may arm for defense, but it will not discuss the right of such vessels to defensive armament. This information, derived from high official sources, serves to clarify the apparent paradox in the position taken by the President in his letter to Senator Stone, that he would not discuss with Germany the principles of the fundamental rights of Americans to travel on vessels armed for defense.

A wave of protest against the Borden "rider" requiring an 8-hour day in the government departments, has swept over the entire Capital. The American Federation of Labor has taken up the fight against it, and sent strong protests to Speaker Clark and the chairman of the appropriations committee. Congressman Borden, in answer to the criticism, declared there was no intention to increase the hours of labor of government employees beyond the recognized and proper standard of private employment.

Secretary Lansing has asked Congress to appropriate for twelve more secretaries of legations abroad, because of the work assumed by the United States in caring for the diplomatic interests of warring nations.

J. S. Shea, of Indiana, is understood to be the probable choice of President Wilson for Ambassador to Chile to succeed H. P. Fletcher who has been confirmed as Ambassador to Mexico, by a vote of 49 to 16.

Charges continue to pile up against Louis R. Brandeis, nominated for Supreme Court Justice, before the Senate investigating committee. Among them are alleged secret employments by Collier's Weekly, while ostensibly acting for L. R. Glavis in the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation in 1909, and the connection of Mr. Brandeis' firm with the attempt of E. H. Harriman to secure control of the Illinois Central in 1907.

An embargo against freight destined by rail or water for New York distributing points has been caused by congestion in freight yards around New York. There are not enough vessels available to carry abroad all the freight sent into New York.

Attorneys General of fifteen States have filed with the Supreme Court of the United States a joint argument in support of the constitutionality of the West Virginia liquor law prohibiting the receipts and possession of intoxicating liquors for personal use. The case also involves the federal Webb-Kenyon liquor law prohibiting the shipment of such liquor into States in violation of local laws.

Mrs. Robert Lansing, wife of the Secretary, is taking a prominent part in the finance campaign of the Young Women's Christian Association, by tendering a reception at her home to the most prominent women in Washington.

Justice J. C. McReynolds, the bachelor member of the Supreme Court, entertained at dinner in compliment of Chief Justice and Mrs. White, Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the Solicitor General, filled the role of hostess for Justice McReynolds.

For Family Use.

"Charlie," a Kirkwood commuter's wife began, thoughtfully, "I've been thinking a lot about you lately."

"What's up?"

"Since we moved here to the country and you've gone back and forth every day to the city you have seen absolutely nothing of the children."

"I don't see how that can be helped," said Charlie. "When I leave in the morning they are not up, and when I come back in the evening they're in bed."

"Yes," said the wife, "that is so, but you might at least send them a souvenir postcard now and then."

SIMON H. SELL, H. E. MASON, Assignee. Attorney. Osterburg, Pa. Feb. 18, 3t.

STUDY YOUR INDIVIDUALITIES

Little Talks on Health and Hygiene by Samuel G. Dixon, M. D., LL. D., Commissioner of Health.

Engineers will tell you that no two locomotives are ever exactly alike. They may be turned out to an exactness that defies the most modern instrument for measurement or weight to show any differences. Put into service, each machine will develop individual characteristics, one often being superior for its purpose. This same unknown quantity is experienced in sea-going vessels. The trial trip is the only test of their efficiency.

The medical man never finds two human beings with the same dispositions, mental or physical strength, yet we are created after the same model, but owing to dissimilar nerve forces or the life of our tissues, each individual has certain differences and some have real idiosyncrasies.

There are broad rules of nature relating to our physical welfare which we cannot transgress without evil results. Likewise there are certain things which the majority of us can do without putting any unusual strain on our physique, but here begins the question of the adjustment of the individual piece of machinery. We must study our physical limitations and find out just what scope we have. Because one man can live or almost exist on an exclusive meat diet, it is no reason why the next fellow can. Men and women often ruin their health by trying to do things simply because others do them. Each should get his own measure.

The question of age must enter into consideration. It is well to bear in mind that exertion which does not seem a strain at one period in life may be dangerous in later years.

These same principles apply in matters of diet. There are foodstuffs wholesome enough to the average individual, which seem to have a deleterious effect on the few.

We must measure our individual characteristics and avoid those things that do not agree with us.

All of these things should be observed and taken into consideration. They are the results of weakness or peculiarities in our living machinery and to reach and maintain efficiency they must be recognized and respected.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

All married women travel under an assumed name.

It is reported on good authority that the dove of peace is nesting with the eagles.

When a young man gets to going too fast he begins to lag behind his slower and soberer brothers.

No matter how much we may be opposed to woman's suffrage, there are worse things—for instance, the army of male voters who do not go to the polls.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Whiskey straight makes crooked paths.

When you think a girl's a peach you don't need sugar and cream to smack your lips over her.

What would be the basest crime in time of peace is the highest exemplification of patriotism in time of war.

You, young man, just fresh from college, don't make fun of your old dad's lack of learning. Think of the good judgment he used in picking out a mother for you.

Weight may be gained by sleeping as well as by eating.

Chew your food well. If you swallow your food half chewed it will make your stomach work too hard.

When your body gets hard exercise, it uses up more heat and needs more food. The food gives back the heat. If you do not get exercise in your work, you should eat less, or you may get fat.

Do not eat between meals. You may overwork your stomach.

Do not eat heavy meals just before heavy work. Do not eat a heavy meal when you are very tired or overheated. It is then sometimes better to skip a meal or to eat fruits or salads. If overheated, eat foods that take up room in the stomach

but which do not make much heat.

You can find the names of some of these foods under Rule 8.

Eat a little less food in hot weather.

Food makes heat, and in hot weather you need less heat.

RULE 7.

Do Not Eat Much Meat and Eggs.

Foods are of two kinds—REPAIR

food and FUEL food. The repair foods are called "proteins." The fuel foods are called "carbohydrates"

and "fats."

We must eat a certain amount of

"protein," or repair food, each day to replace those parts of the body which are being used up. If we eat more of this "protein," or repair food, than we really need, the surplus food decays in the bowels and makes poisons. This works the liver and kidneys too hard, because they are the parts of the body which have to get rid of these poisons.

There are two foods which we all use and which have this "protein," or repair food, in large amounts.

These foods are MEAT and EGGS. If we eat too much of meat and eggs

we get more "protein," or repair food, than the body needs. This makes poisons. Eat little of meat and eggs.

RULE 8.

Eat Various Kinds of Food.

Most people eat too much soft food. HARD foods, like crusts, toast, hard fruits and nuts, that make us chew, are good for us. They make us use our teeth.

Hard foods also keep your teeth

from decaying.

The size and weight of the food have little to do with the work it does in your body. A little pat of butter, which weighs half an ounce, holds just as much food as a pound and a half of watermelon.

The work that food does is measured by the heat it makes in your body. Eat foods which "fill you up," but which don't make too much heat. Some of these FILLING or

BULKY foods are lettuce, cucumbers, celery, spinach, asparagus, cabbage, cauliflower, beets, onions, carots, parsnips, squash, pumpkins and tomatoes. Starchy foods, like potatoes, should be well cooked.

Some raw foods such as fruits and salads have things in them that are good for you. These things are in some cases lost in cooking. For this reason, you should eat some raw foods each day.

Some foods, such as potatoes and fish should not be eaten raw.

RULE 9.

Eat Slowly.

Chew your food until you can swallow it very easily. If you have to force the food down, you have not chewed it enough.

Sip all liquids slowly. Do not gulp them down. Do not take a drink of water while your mouth is not to smoke at all. If you smoke, do so in moderation.

RULE 13.

Keep Away from Catching Diseases.

There are many diseases which are "catching" because the people who are sick with them have what are called "germs." These germs gave them the disease.

Germs are almost everywhere, but they will rarely hurt you if you are well and strong. If you are tired, or are not well, these germs may make you sick. When many people in town have colds or grippe, do not stay in crowds if you are tired or do not feel well.

An easy way to catch tuberculosis is from some sick person who has been spitting on the floor or pavement. The spit dries like powder and goes into the air as dust. You then breathe it into your lungs, and you are apt to catch the disease if you are tired or weak.

Many other diseases are caused by spitting where people can breathe in the germs. It is not wise or nice to spit about the home or in public places.

The mosquito often carries malaria and yellow fever. The common house fly may carry typhoid fever germs.

To avoid diseases, keep mosquitoes and flies out of the house and away from your food.

The best way to avoid diseases which are caused by flies or mosquitoes is to destroy their breeding places. Mosquitoes breed in stagnant water. Flies breed in decaying matter, especially horse manure.

You should boil water before drinking if you are not certain that it is pure. Water may have typhoid germs and germs of other diseases in it.

If your teeth are decayed they make poisons in your body. Be sure to clean your teeth, tongue and gums thoroughly each night and morning

by brushing with a tooth-brush.

Move the brush up and down and with a circular motion, as well as across the teeth. If you can do so, clean them after each meal. Fruit, especially apples, after a meal are good mouth and tooth cleaners.

Bathe often to keep away sickness.

Always wash your hands before eating. If you scratch or injure any part of your body, keep the injured place clean.

Some of the poisons of the body are thrown off by sweating. After sweating, you should bathe to take these poisons from the skin.

Do not use drinking cups or towels which have been used by other people. Many diseases are carried in this way.

RULE 14.

Work Hard But Play and Rest Too.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. To be healthy and happy we must all work, but we should also rest and play. Those who do hard physical work all day should play simple games, like checkers or cards to work their minds. This will let the tired muscles rest. Read good newspapers and books. Tell jokes and stories. Laughter is very healthy.

When you come home tired out, lie down for a few minutes. Sleep for a few minutes if you can. Even fifteen minutes of rest or sleep will refresh you greatly, especially before eating.

If you have been sitting in an office

all day, your brain is tired when you stop.

Your body needs exercise to make your brain forget the

CLACKA

February 29, 1916.

L. B. Stouder, of Roaring Spring, spent Tuesday and Wednesday here on business.

Miss Marion Blummer of Mann's Choice, was a guest of Miss Lillian Wisegarver over Sunday.

A little daughter came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walters last week.

Ralph Griffith of Johnstown spent a day last week with relatives here. Wm. Fissel of Altoona, the I. H. C. machinist was here repairing machinery last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kremer Hershberger who are now living in Altoona, but formerly of this place are the parents of a baby girl.

Mrs. Cyrus Imier and son of Imier spent Sunday with G. H. Croyle's family.

O. J. Ball spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Elias Ball at Schellsburg.

G. H. Croyle has returned from Pittsburgh, where he was visiting his children.

John Dull and wife of Bedford spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson.

R. S. McCreary spent Saturday at Point on business.

Irvin Ebersole of New Enterprise spent Saturday here on business.

Mrs. Leonard of Fossilville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Walters at a social gathering.

A good time social was enjoyed at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Zinn at Osterburg on Thursday of last week by a number of ladies of St. John's Lutheran Church at Cessna. Upon arriving the guests were given a cordial welcome and during the day mirth and conversation reigned supreme. After being entertained with music on the Victrola, dainty and delicious refreshments were served at the noon day hour, which needless to say were thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Upon returning to their homes on the 5.03 train all expressed their appreciation for the day's entertainment and their host and hostess for their kind and cordial hospitality. Those comprising the party were: Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Zinn, Rev. Baughman, Mrs. Joseph Crissman, Mrs. A. J. Imier, Mrs. W. L. Fickes and Miss Salinda Moses of Osterburg, Mrs. Mary McCallion, Mrs. Job Walter, Mrs. Henry Wisegarver, Mrs. Cal Heltzel, Mrs. Dan Pensyl, Mrs. S. U. Troutman, Mrs. Wilson Hissong, Mrs. John Anderson, Misses Sue Walter, Mollie, Nettie and Irene Anderson, Hazel Troutman, Carrie Croyle and Maude Heltzel. All of one opinion, thought the day had proved most enjoyable and would long remain a pleasant memory.

DOG SQUIRRELS' FRIEND.

Animal Belong to the Bride of the Governor of Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 26.—The hundreds of squirrels in Capitol Park have found a new friend. His name is "Fritz."

"Fritz, who?"

Why, to be explicit "Fritz Brumbaugh, first dog of the State," if you please, pet of none other than Mrs. Martin G. Brumbaugh, bride of the Governor of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Brumbaugh, who is a great lover of animals, has brought to the Executive Mansion from her Germantown home her dog "Fritz," a St. Charles spaniel, full of clever tricks and good nature. "Fritz," took a decided fancy to the frisky little gray squirrels which infest Capitol Park, and the river front park in front of the Governor's home the moment he got his eye on them.

And strange to relate, the squirrels have no fear of Fritz. And so one more opportunity is given the great T. R. to shout "nature faker."

DEFIANCE

John Stayer and his little daughter, Marie were at Everett Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. C. W. Fox of Roaring Spring returned to her home on Thursday of last week after having spent a week with her sister, Mrs. H. H. Brumbaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Tenley attended the Eastern Star banquet at Saxton Thursday night of last week.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. Church of Defiance will give a chicken and waffle supper in Little's Hall, Saturday evening.

Rev. Hadden Rhodes of Huntingdon dined with Mr. Brumbaugh last Sunday.

Supt. L. H. Hinkle is visiting schools in Broad Top Township this week.

Messrs. Tenley, Little and Mitchell demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of everybody in Defiance that they CAN walk some when they must and Mr. John McCavitt is willing to confess that something may go wrong with a fellow's automobile when he least expects it. We are glad to assure all that none are the worse off for having been obliged to abandon the machine about 8 miles from way and walk.

The many friends of Mrs. J. R. Satterfield gave her a pleasant evening on the 18th of February. It being the 50th anniversary of her birth. There were about 40 persons present. Some were from Six Mile Run, some from Defiance, and several from Ohio. All who expressed themselves say they had a splendid time.

The entertainment given by the Seniors of the high school Thursday night of last week was a decided success.

We are pleased to report that Mr. William Foreman, who had the misfortune to have his jaw broken over a week ago and who is at the hospital at Altoona is doing nicely according to the report given out by his physician.

Bedford Presbyterian Church

The pastor of the church will preach morning and evening, at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. He will also teach the men's Bible Class at 10 a. m. A full attendance is desired and expected. The special music prepared for the young people's service will be given this Sunday.

The VICTOR was awarded The Grand Prize for Tone, Quality And 21 Other Grand Prizes at The Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The officials of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition had before them all of the American-made talking machines at the time they awarded their prizes for excellence in various points.

Here and there were found machines which could give in some one feature a standard that approached the corresponding feature in the Victor machine. These few machines of makes other than the Victor received several prizes—one given to this machine, another to that.

But the Victor was awarded 22 Grand Prizes—not merely on a single feature did the Victor excel, but in 22 features it excelled all its rivals.

Please note that the Grand Prize is the Highest possible award given at the Exposition; the next is the Medal of Honor; third, Gold Medal; fourth, Silver Medal.

The Victor was awarded 14 highest honors from the Liberal Arts Division, and 8 highest possible awards from the Educational Division.

So, when you hear of an imitator of the Victor Talking Machine advancing its single honor won at the Panama-Pacific Exposition just remember that the Victor was awarded 22 Grand Prizes.

RECORD SERVICE

Each month you will find on sale at our store in Bedford the New Victor Record.

You can hear these new records any time you care to drop in and spend a few minutes. Please feel free to do this—we want you to hear this unexcelled music whether you wish to buy or not.

WRITE—OR CALL

If you are interested in Victors, or in High Grade Pianos, or in any other class of Musical Instruments, and are thinking of making a purchase, don't fail to write us before you make your decision.

Many persons have done this, and after learning what we could do for them, placed their order with us. Don't let anyone talk you into buying anything less than the Victor.

Preparedness

the watchword of the nation, should be extended to the home.

The most effective preparation for home defense that the head of the family can make for the time when he or she will no longer be permitted to provide for the guidance and support of the home is a snug savings account.

A savings account in this bank affords to everybody these three special advantages: Absolute security, liberal interest, training in thrift.

A dollar safely invested is worth more than ten thousand that you have lost. For in financial matters experience is a teacher whose lessons are worth their cost. He who chooses a savings account instead of taking chances in wild speculation, is the winner in the end. You should keep your principal where it is safe, rather than lose it and accumulations, in your wild rush for extra large returns.

SYNOPSIS.

Dudley Larnigan, district attorney, because of his fight on the vice and liquor trusts, is killed by an agent of a secret society, the committee of fifteen. The fight is continued by his son, Bruce, who is elected district attorney, and by another son, Tom. Bruce is in love with Dorothy Maxwell, whose father is head of the insurance trust.

TENTH EPISODE

The Harbor Transportation Trust

Suggested by ZANE GREY.
 Author of "The Light of Western Stars," "The Rainbow Trail," "Riders of the Purple Sage," etc.

HOW DUDLEY LARNIGAN and his son, Tom, who had taken up Bruce's work of exposing the machinations of the members of the graft trust, headed by Stanford Stone, after the almost fatal injury to Bruce, felt that it was even more important to protect the public against the extortion practiced by the grafters than it was to pursue their own revenge.

"I started just for revenge," said Bruce, shaking his head, after Tom had told him of his success in getting evidence against the coal trust. "But, even if these men killed our father, we can't let our hatred of them prevent us from doing our duty."

"There's not above stealing from any one," said Tom. "And the next thing to get after is the distribution of food and supplies of all sorts right here in New York. There's a combination that absolutely controls the movement of every pound of freight in the harbor. I'm convinced somebody in this combination goes for smuggling too."

"Now you're talking about Grant Fisher, Tom," said Bruce.

"Good heavens! How did you know that, Bruce? For a sick man you're mighty up to date, but it's not going to be easy to get any evidence against him."

"I know that," said Bruce. "Have you got a plan at all?"

"Yes—and no," said Tom. "It's not worth being called a plan, really. It's just an idea. I want to follow a hunch I've got without telling you what it is until I know whether or not it's going to work. All right?"

"Go ahead," said Bruce. "If you fall down come back and we'll get together."

"Just a minute, Captain Monk," said a voice. "Mr. Fisher will sound his buzzer when he's ready for you to come in."

"All right, all right!" boomed Monk in a deep voice.

The buzzer sounded; Monk went in. And right behind him was Tom. Monk, it was plain, supposed that he was attached to the office. Fisher, glancing at Tom, paid no more attention to him. As Tom had hoped, he supposed that Monk had brought some one with him.

Tom realized in a moment that luck had favored him to an almost incredible degree, for Monk, without preamble, launched into a report of the most confidential sort.

"Well, it's all right, boss!" he announced. He spoke in what he evidently believed to be a low, carefully modulated voice, but every word was audible to Tom. "I brought in the cargo all right, all right. And none of them smart Alecks of customs boys was a bit anxious to search the ship—not with the lions and tigers and critters of that sort the hold was full of. So, the opium's all ashore and in Gruen's place."

Tom had heard all that he needed to know. Slowly and so as not to attract suspicion to himself, he went out the door.

Fisher, meanwhile, had frowned slightly as he saw Tom go.

"Look here, Monk," he said, "this sort of thing ought to be kept pretty much to ourselves. The next time you have a confidential report to make don't bring any one with you."

"What?" roared Monk. "I didn't!"

"Then who was that fellow who came in with you?"

"Him? He works for you, don't he? He just followed me in, and when you didn't say nothing I supposed he was all right!"

They stared at one another a moment. And then Fisher, with a sudden suspicion, reached into his desk for a batch of photographs, which he studied. He cried out sharply and then handed Monk a picture of Tom Larnigan.

"That's him!" said Monk.

"Yes, and he's Tom Larnigan," said Fisher, "a government special prosecutor or agent—a spy set upon the syndicate to destroy it! A fine trick we've let him play on us!"

"The —!" said Monk, with a great deep sea oath. "I'll get him or my name's not Monk!"

"You'd better try!" said Fisher satirically. "If you don't he'll get us—I can promise you that! I'll go to work too. Go along now and warn Gruen to be careful. That wild animal sort of his has been too useful to us for us to let the government get on to its real character."

Fisher, when Monk had gone, telephoned at once to Stanford Stone, telling him what had happened.

"All right," said Stone after a moment. "I suppose I shall have to pull us out of the hole that you and Monk in your stupidity have dug for us. Fine business!"

Stone set the wheels of his organization turning at once. He sent for Dunn, the man who served him in his most critical affairs and over whom he held as a constant threat his knowledge of a certain criminal episode of the past.

"As a matter of fact," said Stone, "I'm not sorry this has happened. Fisher's a fool, but his folly has turned out well this time. Larnigan will go to Gruen's. You can see to it that when he does so he walks into a trap."

Meanwhile, however, there had been a change in Tom's plans. He had gone immediately to the office of the Independent, the newspaper which was backing Bruce Larnigan's fight, with Jack Stevens as its editor. There he had found Bruce and also a telegram from Washington ordering him to go at once to Rio de Janeiro, where, it was said, the consul would be able to give him instructions concerning a special mission connected with the operations of the graft syndicate.

"You'll have to go," Bruce said. "But I'm nearly well now. I'm well enough, at any rate, to take hold of this affair. So there need be no change in our plans."

And another factor was about to be introduced into the case. Dorothy Maxwell and her chum, Kitty Rockford, were by this time, thanks to their more or less accidental success in the past in helping the Larnigans, convinced of their own powers as detectives. Dorothy had been engaged to Bruce. Stanford Stone was in love with her, and owing to his hold upon her father and his threat if she did not yield to him to ruin him Dorothy was afraid to come out openly against Stone. In secret, however, she was his enemy.

The two girls while out walking spied Dunn and, remembering him from previous attempts against the Larnigans, determined to follow him. Dunn, how-rage equalled his astonishment when he saw Dorothy. He realized then that he had no chance to win her, and his love for her turned to hate.

"Is Molly's place still running?" he asked Gruen.

"Yes," said Gruen, with a grin.

Molly's place was a dive of a singularly notorious sort. It was a resort of the worst type, a place to which the women of the streets sank when they were nearly at the end of the tether. No woman who ever entered it came out alive. Its customers were sailors and men of the roughest sort. And it was to this place that Stone ordered the two girls to be taken.

The girls had not been idle. They found a nick and a crowbar in their cell, but could make no impression upon the heavy door. So they turned their attention to the padlock. That was not on the door by which they had been thrust in, but on a smaller door which might lead, they thought, to the cellar of the next house. As a matter of fact, though they did not of course suspect it, it actually led to the cell in which the lions were confined.

It was Bruce and Jack Stevens who came to Gruen's instead of Tom and Travers. But that made no difference to Dunn's men and Gruen. They were attacked at once, and Bruce was knocked senseless at the beginning of the fight. Jack, stepping on to the trap, fell into the cellar among the lions. In horror, he backed against the door, and it opened behind him. The two girls removed the padlock just in time and dragged him through, closing the door before the lions could enter.

But now the men who were to take the girls to Molly's place came in, and Stevens, against fearful odds, put up the best fight he could. The noise brought the police, and Stevens and the girls were rescued just in time. The police cleared out the store above as well and saved Bruce. But no one could save Fisher. Coming to see the success of his plan, he fell through the trap, and there was no one to open the door for him. The lions made him their prey instead of Stevens.

Out at sea Tom Larnigan came to his senses to see Monk's evil eyes glaring down at him.

"Well, you're here! And there's no turning back on this ship," said Monk.

"So I suppose," said Tom coolly.

"Where are you bound, captain?"

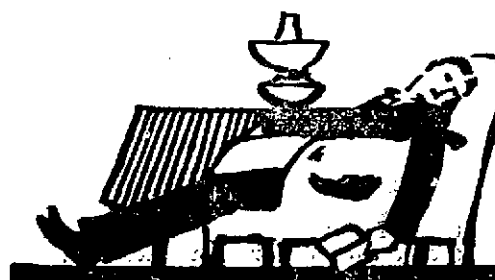

"Rio de Janeiro."

"Good! Look at this, captain."

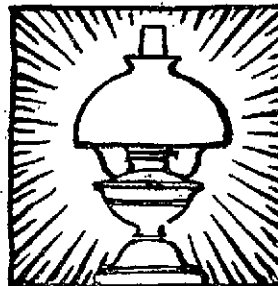

Tom showed his telegram from Washington and the official papers that gave him his authority.

"We'll go with you as passengers," said Tom. "I imagine you know enough of Uncle Sam to understand that it's time for you to turn against the men you've worked for!"

To press a plaited skirt—Fasten the plaits in place by pinning to the ironing board, then hold the waist band firmly in one hand and stretch slightly toward the top.

Hints for cold wash days—To keep the clothes from freezing in cold weather throw a handful of salt into the washing water. Warm the clothes in the oven before hanging out clothes and hands will not chill quickly. It is a good plan to wear white woolen gloves if one does not then awkward in handling clothes.

Prevent car sickness—A Pullman porter told me to eat several of raw potato sprinkled with one morning when I despaired of being able to eat again. In half hour I was eating a hearty meal.

Hints Worth Trying.

To prevent "runs" in new silk stockings stitch with thread around leg of the new stockings a short distance from the top one can prevent the dropped thread that so often ruins a new pair of stockings. The stitching should be done on the sewing machine with a very fine stitch.

To cut fresh bread—Dip your knife in boiling water and you can cut the thinnest slice from a fresh loaf.

Hot water plates for invalids for serving food are now on sale in this country. The plate is really an ornamental pan with handles for lifting, and a spout for filling with hot water. Inside is fitted a serving plate for the food which has the temperature sustained by the heat from beneath. Prices vary according to material and size.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of Sunday School Course, Moody Bible Institute.)
(Copyright, 1916, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 5

THE DEATH OF STEPHEN.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 7:1-43.
GOLDEN TEXT—Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee the crown of life.—Rev. 2:10.

This lesson closely follows that of last Sunday. There are some battles of life that are not fought with fists or weapons. The boy who holds his temper is more manly than the one who goes into a fight simply to win. Paul tells us how and what to fight (Eph. 6:11, 12). We must show the scholars clearly the two great battles Stephen fought and the victory he won as described in today's lesson. The charges made against Stephen were made by "false witnesses." This does not mean men who invented false words, but men who took isolated statements, distorted them and by innuendo used them for their own ends. Stephen was charged with three things: (a) Blasphemy against God (6:11-13), (b) That he had said Jesus would return and destroy the temple (6:14), (c) That he claimed that Jesus would destroy or abrogate the law (6:14). This great passage of Scripture is so profound and so closely connected that we hesitate in trying to separate it into divisions or sections. We much prefer to note the logical argument and presentation Stephen the Spirit-anointed deacon made to the Sanhedrin.

I. Stephen's Defense. Stephen was a Grecianized Jew, whose name means "a crown." He answered the charges of these foreign accusers, made before the Sanhedrin, "seriatim." His point of contact was to respectfully remind the council that he was an orthodox Jewish believer and worshiper (v. 2). He called the council "Men, brethren and fathers." They were common believers and all were standing before the God-appointed leaders of Israel. Stephen in his reply showed that he revered God and God's prophet Moses, thereby answering the first charge (v. 11), and while he revered the temple he showed that it was not essential to worship (7:47-49). This last was in answer to their second charge (6:14). In answer to their third charge Stephen then turned upon his enemies and by direct and indirect charges he convicted them of certain facts. Indirectly, by skillful repetition of Jewish history, and a review of the prophets, he discloses the vacillation and sinfulness of God's chosen people (23, 29). Directly he accuses these leaders of having been subservient to certain customs as being superior to the law they professed to obey. Stephen's accusers were, as we have seen, from without Jerusalem (6:9, 10), and his first battle was concerning the truth about Jesus. His second great battle, and one of his ultimate victory, was with these avowed enemies of Jesus (6:11:8:3).

II. Stephen's Death. The real contest of this occasion was Satan vs. the Holy Spirit. Stephen put to rout these men from the foreign synagogue, hence the Jewish authorities determined to take hold of the problem themselves and put a stop to this Christian teaching. Stephen's sudden application of the Scripture to his judges caused intense anger. He preached the word of God in the demonstration of the Holy Spirit, and such preaching always either produces conviction of sin, or else arouses anger at the preacher. These men could not deny the truth of his accusation; they therefore turned upon him in anger. Being "full of the Holy Spirit" is an abiding condition and inevitably involves a conflict with Satan. It led Stephen to look up and not about him, and in his hour of testing he saw a wonderful vision of heaven—"The glory of God and of Jesus standing." Let us accept the testimony of this dying man as a literal fact. This sight strengthened him for his suffering and for his witnessing. Death had no more terror for Stephen and he was faithful and steadfast to the end.

III. Stephen's Burial. These men overreached themselves, for persecution simply scattered those who gave the Christian testimony a wider and a more effective field. This lesson is a study in the early church. Now, after a period of persecution for seven years, we see the beginning of the literal fulfillment of the Pentecostal program (Acts 1:8). During this storm of persecution the apostles remained at their posts in Jerusalem.

Saul's rage knew no bounds, and not content with disputations in the synagogues, he persecuted the church, sparing neither sex nor age (8:1-3).

Stephen's success was in his personal life and his unswerving testimony.

Stephen's victory has been a first fruit of the triumph of the church throughout its history. In heaven he wears the victor's crown among "the overcomers."

Over the grave of the two Wesleys, in Westminster Abbey, is a tablet bearing these words: "God buries his workers, but carries on the work."

TEMPERANCE NOTES

(Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

LICENSE—HIGH TO HIGHEST.

In Massachusetts the minimum cost of a first class saloon license is $1,000. The maximum is not fixed by law, but there are instances on record where licenses have sold for $7,500 and $10,000. The average price is about $3,500.

How does it work—this license system raised to its highest power? The New York Commercial—certainly not a dry advocate—speaking of the increase of the license fee in the state of New York from $1,200 to $1,500 a year, says:

"It seems plausible to reduce the number of drinking places and raise their status by imposing a license fee, but in practice it is not so. In turning over the business to a few brewers who are able to balance the license fees and to drive independent dealers out of business. In some cities in Massachusetts brewers and whole sale dealers control practically all the saloons and hotels and form syndicates to handle the monopoly so given to them by the high license fee. It would be easy to form a syndicate in New York city that would pay $10,000 a year for each license taken out. The revenue might be increased by giving such a monopoly, but the liquor business would be run for all the money it, and social conditions would not be improved. Massachusetts has given high license a fair test and the results are not what its original advocates promised."

ALCOHOL AND INSANITY.

"The seeming indifference of the public and the authorities appears in comprehensible when it is considered what havoc is wrought by alcohol. We spend millions of dollars annually to stamp out and protect the public from infectious diseases, yet the harm done by alcohol is infinitely greater than that caused by all the infectious diseases put together. In our annual admissions to Bellevue hospital of over 3,000 patients (in the wards for mental diseases) more than ten per cent were suffering from insanities due directly to alcohol, and in more than forty per cent alcohol had played a most important part in the causation of the insanity. It seems to me that it would be the greatest aid to humanity if measures might be taken to reduce the consumption of this poison to a minimum, and to provide proper curative institutions for those who have formed a habit but have not passed the curative stage into one of complete mental and physical degeneration. Such an institution should be custodial as well as educational. In such institutions many will find recovery, while, for those who do not, proper restrictions will prevent their leading a life of crime."—Dr. M. S. Gregory of Bellevue Hospital, New York.

FIVE REASONS.

Dr. Henry Williams of New York, an eminent specialist in nervous and mental diseases, has summed up his investigation concerning alcohol in these words:

"I am bound to believe, on the evidence, that if you take alcohol habitually in any quantity whatever, it is to some extent a menace to you. If you do this, I am bound to believe in the light of what science has revealed:

"1. That you are tangibly threatening the physical structures of your stomach, your liver and kidneys, your heart, your blood vessels, your nerves, and brain;

"2. That you are unequivocally decreasing your capacity for working in any field, be it physical, intellectual, or artistic.

"3. That you are in some measure lowering the grade of your mind, dulling your higher esthetic sense, and taking the finer edge off your morals.

"4. That you are distinctly lessening your chances for maintaining health and attaining long life; and,

"5. That you are entailing upon your descendants yet unborn a bond of incalculable misery."

DRINK AND ACCIDENTS.

The following report was sent by the Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad company to the interstate commerce commission:

Number of employees February 1, 1915, 3,385
Number of employees injured who are members of the club, 42
Percentage of total number of members injured, 6.2
Percentage of club members injured who are not club members, 2.8
Percentage of total club members to total number injured, 9.6

TOTAL ABSTINENCE ADVANCE.

Total abstinence is no longer a ridiculed fanaticism. It sits in regal state on the throne of empires and of kingdoms, and in republics sways, in ever-increasing measure, the voting citizenship. It safeguards the soldier, the aviator and the crew of the submarine. It gives a clear brain to the railroad man, the athlete, the autoist and the commercial, industrial and agricultural worker. It says: "The first man to be taken off and the last man to be taken on is the man who drinks."—Anna A. Gordon.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

NEW ENTERPRISE

Frank Wyles attended the funeral of his wife's sister, Mrs. Staley, of Everett last Monday.

J. S. Campbell is clerking in Ira Detwiler's store. Mr. Campbell is very capable and is quite a drawing card for Mr. Detwiler.

Mrs. Mary N. L. of Orem is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Beach purchased a Ford last evening. At the Stambaugh and Weyant debated the negative side of the question: Resolved, that there is no such thing as a free lunch in the wake of civilization. Rev. Stambaugh and J. S. Campbell debated the affirmative side. The indices decided in favor of the negative.

The Literary society has been keeping on the high standard which was set here many years ago, but we have outgrown our building. The seating capacity is very inadequate for the public gatherings. We are expecting to have a high school building erected here this summer in which there should be a room large enough to accommodate public gatherings. February 18, was observed as Patrons' Day at New Enterprise. There was a general turnout of citizens of the district. All were invited to come and bring dinner along and they responded with a hearty good will both in numbers and with eatables. At the noon hour the dining room was in the advanced room with a seating capacity of from 80 to 100 and the tables were filled twice with eaters and eatables, and there were fragments enough left to feed many more. After the tables were cleared away the guests were entertained with an interesting program by the schools.

Husband and Wife Both Saved from Suffering

I wish to tell you the good results myself and husband received from Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root. About eleven years ago I had a severe attack of La Grippe and was confined to my bed about eight weeks under the doctor's care. He pronounced my case kidney trouble and rheumatism and not receiving the results from the doctor's treatment I should have received, I decided to try Swamp Root. After taking several bottles of Swamp Root I was able to get up and attend my work. About a year later my husband was affected with a severe attack of kidney trouble and doctored for some time with the doctors and received no benefit. Knowing of the good I had received, he decided to try Swamp Root. His condition was such that he was confined to his bed and words cannot tell how he suffered, but after taking Swamp Root he was relieved so he could go on with his work without pain. I wish to heartily recommend Swamp Root to all persons afflicted with kidney and bladder troubles and you may publish this letter if you wish.

Yours truly,
MRS. A. E. BRIGGS,
Eldred, Pa.
Sworn and subscribed to before me, this 25th day of May, 1912

Old Nursery Rhymes Revamped.

There was a man in our town,
Who was not very wise,
He went to buy his wife a belt,
But he did not know the size,
And when he took it home to her,
You should have heard the ticks.
Her waist was eighteen inches round
The belt was thirty-six!

Jack be nimble,
Jack be slick,
And maybe you
Will get jailed quick.

Johnny Spratt could afford no fat.
His wife could afford no lean;
"Let's cut them out," said wifey, "till
A lower price is seen."

OPINIONS OF GOVERNORS UPON PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

To Chairman Stone of the House.

Hartford, Conn. Feb. 26.—American citizens should be permitted to travel on the high seas or anywhere else just as they always have been allowed to travel, was the comment of Gov. Marcus H. Holcomb, when asked what he thought of President Wilson's letter to Senator Stone of the Foreign Relations Committee concerning proposed prohibitory legislation against Americans sailing in belligerent liners. "The rules should not be changed in the middle of the game," thinks Gov. Holcomb, who sees no good reason for changing important international laws and usages in the midst of a great war affecting many nations which have been bound by international law.

Boston, Feb. 26.—Concerning President Wilson's letter to Senator Stone, Gov. Samuel W. McCall said: "I believe it had the right ring. The clear rights of American citizens should not be the subject of bargaining or barter."

Wouldn't Consent to Abridgement.

Columbus, O., Feb. 26.—Gov. Willis said: "I note with satisfaction the change in the President's policy as indicated by the paragraph from his letter to Chairman Stone. For my own part I cannot consent to any abridgement of the rights of American citizens in any respect. The honor and self-respect of a nation is involved. We covet peace and shall preserve it at any cost but the loss of honor. This is a good, vigorous, patriotic American declaration and if it had been assumed and sustained in our dealings with Mexico we would have been spared humiliation and had convinced other nations that our State Department was not conducting an international correspondence school."

Honor Should Be Maintained.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 26.—"The honor of the United States should be maintained and the rights of our citizens firmly upheld," said Gov. Philipps of Wisconsin, "but we should not become involved with a foreign nation without good and sufficient reasons. We should not go to war for a trifling arising out of the construction of international law. The situation, however, is not yet sufficiently clear to enable me to pass judgment on the President's message to Senator Stone. I do know that the people of Wisconsin don't want war if it can honorably be avoided."

President's Position Correct.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 26.—Richard I. Manning, Governor of South Carolina, said: "The President's letter to Senator Stone is a strong statement and a correct position. Congress should not embarrass him in dealing with foreign relations. It is amazing and incredible that Democrats should lose sight of their duty as Democrats, as Americans and as patriots by taking action that would discredit the leader of the Nation, who alone has the inside information that enables him to deal properly with those matters. Let Congress understand that the people of America are not cowards, and that they want peace, but peace only with honor."

In Accord With the President.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 26.—Gov. Ferguson expressed himself as heartily in accord with all of President Wilson's policies. He stands with the President in his opposition "to the abridgement of the rights of American citizens in any respect."

Doubts Wisdom of Receding.

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 26.—Gov. Hunt said: "I do not feel wholly qualified to either commend or criticize, for the reason that one far removed from the scene of diplomatic negotiations can be only relatively informed regarding these facts and circumstances upon which the Executive policy, in this instance, is based. While I question the prudence of any American who will venture upon an armed vessel of belligerent ownership during the present troublesome times and believe that no foreign nation should expect armed merchant craft to have clearance from American ports, I likewise doubt the wisdom of so receding from previously declared rights as to place at issue the nation's impartiality and fearlessness in diplomatic controversies. If anything, it is essential that firmness shall characterize all action, and it is equally necessary that the President be assured of Congressional cooperation."

Can Depend Upon Him.

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 26.—Gov. M. Alexander said: "The President has again demonstrated to the country that he may be depended upon at all times and under all circumstances to exercise cool and deliberate judgment in sustaining the nation's honorable neutrality without any sacrifice of the principles of international law. He will bring no humiliation to our people if he is given unrestrained control of foreign affairs, if Congress desires to interfere, it should be a Congress that will assume the responsibility for a war which the American people do not desire. Before acting, Congress should demonstrate that its acts are founded upon the same deliberate judgment and absence of passion shown by the President.

Ralston With President.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 26.—Gov. Ralston said: "I approve heartily the President's letter to Senator Stone. I am entirely with him in this matter."

Would Not Embarrass Mr. Wilson.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 26.—Gov. Locke Craig said: "I would at another time favor a resolution warning Americans against taking passage on armed vessels of belligerents, but in this crisis of supreme importance I would not embarrass or hinder the President by Congressional resolution or discussion in his negotiations with Germany, nor in his effort to satisfactorily adjust our foreign relations. Foreign nations should understand that he has the loyal and determined support of the people of the country and that we have implicit confidence in his wisdom and patriotism."

FISHERTOWN

OSTERBURG

February 29, 1916.

Mrs. J. H. Moses was slightly bitten in the face by one of their horses while feeding them several days ago. We hope nothing of a serious character may develop, her face being badly swollen.

Norman Claycomb, son of Emanuel Claycomb, while in the barn feeding the stock several evenings ago; met with a serious accident. While walking over the shoot of the barn door, he fell through to the floor, a distance of fifteen feet. He was carried into the house unconscious. Dr. Shimer of Pleasantville was called to attend him. No bones were broken, but he was badly bruised. He is still confined to his bed.

Mrs. John Ake and son are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Holderbaum of Imletown.

Mrs. Bruce Croyle and little daughter, Louisa are spending the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr, of Schellsburg.

Mrs. P. S. Bowser was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. P. H. Martin, of Altoona from Tuesday morning till Thursday evening.

The ladies' aid society of the Lutheran church held a chicken and waffle supper at the band hall last Saturday evening. Quite a good crowd was present. Thirty-seven chickens were used besides cake and ice cream. They cleared $48.

A merry crowd of ladies from Cessna were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Zimp recently. Those present were: Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. Troutman and daughter, Marie, Mrs. Henry Wisegarver, Mrs. Job Walter and daughter, Sue, Mrs. McCallion, Mrs. Daniel Pensyl, Mr. Alex Imler, Mrs. William Pickles and daughters, Mrs. Hysong, Mrs. Joseph Crissman, Miss Mollie and Lena Anderson, Lenine Croyle, Rev. Baughman, Miss Nettie Anderson and Miss Salinda Moses.

The weekly meeting of the Osterburg literary society held last week at the school house of this place, was very entertaining and instructive. As usual a very excellent program was rendered. Recitations were given in a very creditable manner by Miss Eva Mason and Miss Mabel Fetter. Solo by Mrs. Bruce Imler. Select Reading by Mrs. D. B. Whitstone, Mrs. P. S. Bowser, Mrs. S. K. Moses. Dialogue: How to keep the Boy on the farm. Debate on Preparedness. Aff. H. E. Mason, George Yont Neg., Russell Jones, Alma Mason. Recitation, Wallace Kauffman.
